Once in a Lifetime . . .

For all classes, the first week of school is a once in a lifetime experience. Seniors stroll leisurely down the halls with confidence because this is the year they have worked hard to reach. Juniors glide along because they know that next year they will be at the top of the school. Sophomores run around excitedly because this year they know where to go. Freshmen amble aimlessly wondering if they'll ever have the confidence the other classes have. Though the classes behave differently at this time, they all agree they will never forget it.

Beginning

Once in a Lifetime . . .

The thoughts one has during his high school days vary greatly. Some thoughts are serious — “Did I study hard enough for that English test?” — While others border on the ridiculous — “What was that green thing I had for lunch?” Daydreaming about everything from college life to weekend dates is another type of thought. Regardless of the nature of the thoughts, they all are once in a lifetime.

Thoughts

Once in a Lifetime . . .

It's written on the face of the athlete lifting that extra fifteen pounds. A faultless spelling paper also expresses this. What is this thing? Strength. These high school years is the time to teach oneself to use the strength — physical and mental — to accomplish anything he desires.

Strength

Once in a Lifetime . . .

Anger towards oneself for not studying hard enough for the midterm, elation that someone special finally noticed, determination to finish that book report at least a week in advance this time — these are emotions experienced by every high school student. Though one experiences many emotions in his high school years, there is no doubt — these feelings are special — once in a lifetime!

Emotions

Once in a Lifetime . . .

The four years spent in high school are among the most enjoyable years in one's lifetime. Gossiping with friends over lunch, passing notes in class without getting caught, and cheering the Trojans to victory are a few of the most enjoyable events of these years.

Enjoyment

Once in a Lifetime . . .

Exciting things such as homecoming and graduation and the "trivial" things such as schoolwork and bathroom keys make up the once in a lifetime experiences of high school. Whether it be the expressions on Miss Trojanettes' faces as they are crowned or the exasperating key stuck in the bathroom lock, it will never be forgotten.

PEOPLE

OUR DEDICATION TO OUR PARENTS

We dedicate this year's annual to our parents, without whose cooperation we would never have accomplished anything. You have shared in our good times as well as our bad, and without you, we would be lost. Parents, we, the students salute you.

To the parents –

When I wanted to walk, you walked along beside me, holding my hand, leading the way. You were there.

When I wanted to run, you let me. You watched me running on my own, trying my wings, only interfering if I fell down. You were there.

THEY SOFTLY WALK

They are not gone who pass
Beyond the clasp of hand,
Out from the strong embrace.
They are but come so close
We need not grope with hands,
Nor look to see, nor try
To catch the sound of feet.
They have put off their shoes
Softly to walk by day
Within our thoughts, to tread
At night our dream-led paths
Of sleep.

They are not lost who find
The sunset gate, the goal
Of all their faithful years.
Not lost are they who reach
The summit of their climb,
The peak above the clouds
And storms. They are not lost
Who find the light of sun
And stars and God.
They are not dead who live
In hearts they leave behind.
In those whom they have blessed
They live a life again,
And shall live through the years
Eternal life, and grow
Each day more beautiful
As time declares their good,
Forgets the rest, and proves
Their immortality.

Student Council

Top Row: Advisor — Mrs. Polly Hubbard, Jennifer Pearson, Jennafer Hill, Jarrett Reagan. Center Row: Andrea Barron, Trina Steele, Annette Ross, Robin Williams, Gerald Ellison. Bottom Row: Chris King, Jennifer Jones, Rob Cleveland.

This year a student council was created at PCHS in which representatives from each class met once a month to discuss, with Mr. Spearman, the students' views on issues going on in the school which they may have disagreed about or wanted to see changed.

Alma Mater

Our strong bond can ne'er be broken,
Formed with deeds of right;
Wisdom, honor, truth, and justice
Built our school of might.

Let us sing this mighty anthem,
Raise our voices high;
Onward now with wealth unspoken,
Hail Peach County High.

Chorus:

We will ever sing thy praises,
Hail thy colors bold;
Hail to thee our ALMA MATER,
Hail thy black and gold.

Librarians

Mrs. McCray

Mrs. Brown

Our librarians, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. McCray, are an essential part of our life at Peach County High School. We appreciate the time and effort they put into preparing an up-to-date selection of books. Thank you.

Janitorial Staff

The janitorial staff of Peach County High is a great asset to our school. Not only do they keep our school neat and clean in appearance, they make each day a special one. They have become more than just 'people who clean up'; they have become our friends — people to whom we can talk.

Nutrition Council

The Nutrition Council has been working hard this past year, trying to change the normal everyday routine of the lunchroom. One of the most recent accomplishments of the Nutrition Council is the weekly potato bar.

The Lunchroom Staff has done a lot of hard work preparing and serving our daily lunches. Much time and effort that has not been recognized went into this. We, the student body, teachers, and administration, give a Big "Thank you!"

Once in a Lifetime . . .

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming is a time of excitement around Peach County High. All the events held during Homecoming Week are not only fun to watch, but also fun to participate in! Everyone, including Freshmen, has the opportunity to help out in some way throughout the week.

Those who do decide to help will always remember the crazy times they had (especially the Seniors); the emotions shared with friends; and for some, the feeling of accomplishment.

Homecoming 1985

Actually, Homecoming can be considered as an accomplishment, an accomplishment for ... the Seniors who have finally reached their last year of high school — the beginning of the rest of their lives;

the Juniors, who have come a long way — maturing and growing each step of the way; the Sophomores, who survived being a Freshman the previous year; and last but not least, the Freshmen, who have yet to attain their goals in life!

The night of the Homecoming game, Miss Trojanette is introduced to the crowd. All of the sweethearts are also announced, and each parades around the football field. Each and everyone of the girls feel proud to be in this position. It is one of importance, not to mention a little luck!

Homecoming is also a special time. A special time for everyone — teachers and students alike. All the spirit needed to win the homecoming game grows during this week. It seems that teachers are a little more lenient and the students are easier to get along with.

Every homecoming throughout a person's high school years will never be forgotten. Although there are usually four during an average student's high school life, each one is different and has meaning that will always be remembered.

Homecoming is the best time of any school year! There are many changes in homecoming year after year, but each one is exciting, fun, special, and a Once in a Lifetime Thing!!

The coach is Coach Eddie Lovvorn.

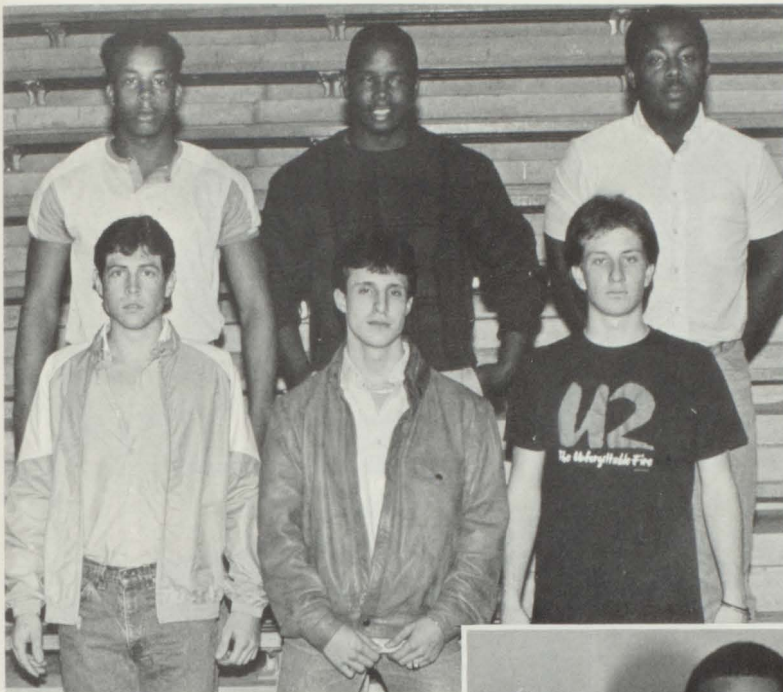

The track team is one of our most participated in sports. The track coach is Eddie Mullins and he did very well his first year in "keeping the Trojan Spirit alive."

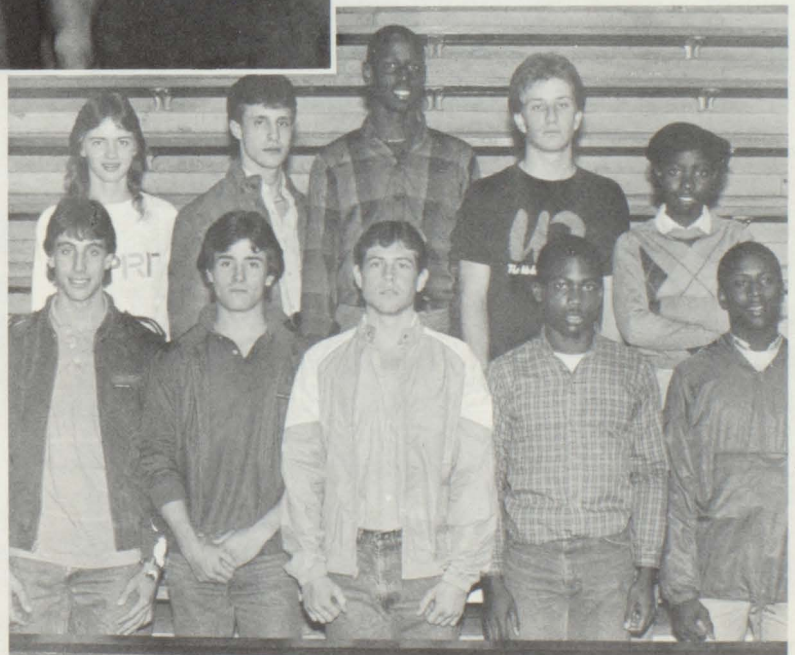

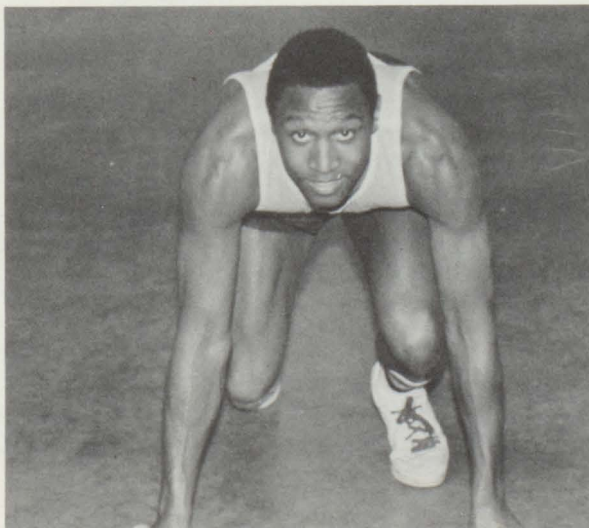

The track team has many different teams such as the distance team and the field events team. They put pride in the hearts of Peach County High School students.

Rodney Talton, the top runner in the state, won the championship in the 100 yard dash. Another Peach County Winner.

Once in a Lifetime . . .

At the closing of a year we realize how much we will miss our friends while we are away on summer vacation. We realize some of them we might never see again. Others, however, will be back next fall. Whether or not we will see them again, we will always remember the times we shared — the good times and the bad, the times when we needed a shoulder to cry on and someone with whom to cry.

Friends

Once in a Lifetime . . .

This time of year is a hard time for all of us. It is a time for final exams, graduation practice, signing yearbooks, and most of all . . . a time for goodbyes — to friends and teachers. Tears, hugs, and promises of writing and keeping in touch are always seen and heard this time of year. We all realize that this like all of our other high school experiences and Halley's comet, this farewell is once in a lifetime.

Farewell

Once in a Lifetime . . .

One of the things that is more important than that long awaited "Graduation Day" is the dreams that we have created. Without those dreams we shall not have anything to look forward to and try to accomplish. With a little determination and hard work, we can make these dreams come true. No matter how impossible or silly they seem, we should never give up on our dreams . . . they may actually come true.

Dreams

I am forever walking upon
these shores,
Betwixt the sand and the foam,
The high tide will erase my foot-prints,
And the wind blow away the foam,
But the sea and the shore will remain forever.

Kahlil Gibran

Sand and Foam*

While walking upon the "shores" of life, I have met people and experienced many emotions. More than once I have come to the fork in which I must decide which way to go. The purpose in my walk, as is everyone's, is to discover myself, who I am, and why I am — what my purpose here is.

"Only once have I been made mute. It was when a man asked me, "who are you?"

Many people have aided me in this never-ending search. My parents have always been there, letting me set out on my own but always willing to catch me when I fell.

My sisters, Lee and Sandy, and my brother, Jim, have laughed with me as well as cried.
My family has always shared my victories as well as my sorrows.

My dear friends have stood by my side, making me smile, letting me cry, just being — I thank you. You've given a part of yourself that will be a part of me evermore.

My teachers who, for twelve years, have contributed to my being and my knowledge. They are dedicated to the task of preparing tomorrow's future —
I admire you. I shall do my best to repay you by preparing for my tomorrow through education.

Among these special people are those of the 1985-86
Retrospect Staff.

Thank you all for the hard work, good humor, and most of all, for putting up with me! We have all worked hard and this production proves it. You have a right to be proud. I especially thank "Lawre Leigh," my co-editor — I never could have done it without you!

As I reminisce over the past years and the good times I've had, the good friends I've shared them with, I get teary-eyed and sentimental. Though it is an ending for me, it is also a beginning — of a new life, new adventures, and new friends.

As we part, my dear friends, let there always be a promise of someday.

Today, Yesterday, Tomorrow — and Someday —
Yesterday, strangers, exchanging smiles
Later, shyly glancing and exchanging ideas Finally accepting one another's ideas and values completely.

Today, saying goodbye with tears, fond memories and promises of —

Tomorrow, shall there ever be Tomorrow for you and me?

Or only what could be? A Someday?

Someday we'll be together . . .

Someday we'll go . . .

Someday we'll . . .

Someday . . .

Someday.

Someday

Maybe Tomorrow we'll look into each other's eyes, smile, and be happy forever.

Or maybe Someday . . .

"But for now we'll go on living separate lives . . ."
